

Aurora at the 9th edition of the Alpe Adria Pen Show

Aurora pens will be among the protagonists of the ninth edition of the Alpe Adria Pen Show. The Turin-based company will take this opportunity to present its brilliant new lines and some prestigious limited editions to connoisseurs attending the event.

The much-awaited international trading exhibition of collectors' fountain pens will be held in Trieste on 17 April. The city, which hosts the event each year, is getting ready to welcome large numbers of specialists and lovers of writing who are expected to arrive from all parts of Europe.

A vast selection of pens, produced by leading Italian and international manufacturers, will all be on show together, to be admired and bought by pen connoisseurs. Exhibits will range from period to ultra-modern models, from classic fountain pens to the most sought-after pieces, along with an extensive range of gift boxes and presentation cases in every shape and colour, to suit all tastes. This is a truly fascinating event, a showcase for refined masterpieces of beauty and technical precision, at which Aurora will certainly stand out and make a valid contribution.
