

Aurora Talentum Cappuccio Cromato. Contemporary writing.

Born with the dawning of the year two thousand, the Talentum is the pen of the new millennium. Past and future, tradition and innovation all blend together in an instrument of modern design and extraordinary technical precision.

This creation, with its brand new look, embodies Aurora's state-of-the-art technology while at the same time reflecting its continuing tradition of expert craftsmanship and artistic excellence.

Since 1919 Aurora has signed the most prestigious writing instruments and luxury goods bearing the Made in Italy label. Now the Turin-based firm presents its new Talentum Cappuccio Cromato, a technological jewel that further enriches the extensive range of one of the most popular lines.

Precision and elegance are the special hallmarks of this pen. It stands for writing today and, with its solid and elegant lines, it is a pen that interprets modernity to perfection.

The polished chrome-plated cap shines up against the black resin barrel with chrome-plated trims. The name Aurora is engraved on the chrome-plated ring, making it even more precious. The tapered nib is made of rhodium-plated solid gold.

Available in the fountain pen, ball point pen and rolling ball pen versions, the Talentum Cappuccio Cromato comes in a refined presentation case with black velvet inserts.

Aurora, a leading company in the production and sale of quality writing instruments and fine leather goods, has extended its range to include a new line of paper products. This collection further enhances Aurora's broad product range, true masterpieces of Italian craftwork, recognised and esteemed the world over, born of a rich cultural heritage and a long tradition of success.
